

OCTOBER 2012 ■ Palm Beach Road Runners

From the Office of the President, Dr. Chris Fox

Greetings Palm Beach Roadrunners:

Even though the temperature still shows above 90 degrees here in South Florida, Fall races are upon us and I hope you are healthy for the upcoming race season. Before you know it, it will be Thanksgiving Day and time for The Run for the Pies race. It is a wonderful Roadrunner's family event and it will close out, so don't forget to please sign up early so you can run and get a tech shirt.

It has been a pleasure being President of this great running club and a part of this running community however at this time I have to step down and take care of myself for a little while.

I hope everyone's training is going well and hope to see you on the road sometime soon. Until then, run safe, run hard, and run with a smile (because you can).

Chris
President

"The training for fall marathons are full on , take advantage of your membership and join a group run. The motivation and friendships found are worth the early morning rise. My 1st marathon was the NYC marathon in 2008 and without the PBRR support and friendships that I found by coming out to group runs, that marathon would not have been as spectacular as it was. I hope every member of PBRR gets an opportunity to take advantage of everything your running group has to offer you!"

See you on the road,
Maura
