WHAT HAPPENED

February 16, Everglades Ultra 25K, 50K, 50 Mile

Great race, with some great performances by KWSR's Debbie Bertolini Ran her first trail ultra winning second over all female in the 50 Miler.

Susan Kochan won I participated in the 2nd annual Everglades Ultra. This was my first trail race and my longest race at 25K. I was a volunteer for the 1st annual and had so much fun in complete everglades immersion; I vowed to race it this year. The weather was a runners dream and the scenery was beautiful; it was well worth the five-hour trek from Key West. I am now in love with trail running and find myself seeking out any piece of nature to explore. I want to thank Bob Becker, the amazing Fakahatchee ranger staff and the volunteers that made this memorable experience possible. Here's a photo of me and my pals in our post race hoodies- who says racing isn't cool! Susan

February 23, 6th Annual Blimp Road 4 Miler

Once again the Pirates Wellness Center provided a great spot for the Pre and Post race festivities that benefits the St. Peter Church SeaBee Foundation, which provides educational scholarships for single parent families in the lower Florida Keys. Food and Drink were plentiful and a great numbers of runners and walkers enjoyed the race, raffles and awards on a rather warm February morning. Southernmost Runner, Doug Weeks ran through 3 miles with Albuquerque runner, Anthony Fleg, then pulled ahead and stretched his lead to 29 seconds to win the overall title with a time of 22:39.
