2013 was another extremely busy year for the Runner's Edge Foundation with over 20 events and 10,000 finishers in our events and 2014 is looking even busier with 5 events in January and February. There are so many great charities we work with each year and this is the best part of our jobs to be able to help each one of them to accomplish their goals. We encourage runner to support the charities and not the for profit events as you pick your events. I am thankful for the great event staff and volunteers we have to accomplish so many events. Special thanks to Casey Gaus, Carol Virga, Eddie Ernest-Jones, Scott Richards, Don Wennerstrom, Tom Kasprik, Sara Gomez, Nikki Alvarez, Keith Seago, Dirk Nyren, Sally Cohen, Debbie & Kenny Butalewicz, Kyoko Johnson, Brandon Mercado, Brian Dillard, Mike Vidal, Harrie Olsthoorn, Sam Palestine, Lacey Chimenti, Olivia Nicholson, Jack Klump, Mike Stone, Commander Bingham, Geri Barry, Diane Lavallee, Liz Scary, Ryan & Andrew Vladimir, Tim & Joe Peterson, Boca High NJROTC & Cross country teams, Lynn & FAU teams who are willing to help at many of our events. We are always looking for more so please let us know if you are interested in helping! The photos below are for some of our great volunteers this year. We appreciate your support!

In January we have Together We See Eye Run which has already raised over $10,000 for disabled children attending camp Quest and Take Stock in Children at FAU which has raised over $25,000 this year for youth scholarships in Palm Beach County. See you at the races—Tom Vladimir
