

TC Runners for the River!

In addition to fitness, runners on the Treasure Coast are also civic-minded. As the summer heated up, so did the water quality crisis all around Florida that flooded the national news with images of the toxic algae blooms devastating local waterways and the fragile Indian River Lagoon Estuary, the most bio-diverse ecosystem in the Northern hemisphere. In protest, Will Glover organized a 37-mile protest run on July 16 from Lake Okeechobee to Stuart Beach sponsored by the Vital Wellness Center and Treasure Coast Running to raise awareness of the water quality crisis.
