

President's Message

The snowbirds are back, and the running season is in full swing. The Club had a great social at the Burger Bar on October 19. We had a good turnout, and a great time. Thank you to Dave Masterson and Krissi Neville for making it happen. Our Socials are one of the many benefits from being a PBRR member and great way to meet fellow runners.

Club members are well represented in races locally, including the Wellington 10 Miler, the Treasure Coast Half and the Boca Half, and nationally. Dave Masterson paced an Achilles runner at the New York Marathon. Well done Dave.

Our traditional Run 4 the Pies, 4 miler and Kids race is Thanksgiving Day, November 24. It's one of our three signature races, and it always sells out. This is a great family event to start your Thanksgiving day.

The Classics by the Sea 5K and 10K is December 17. It's another one of our three signature races, and always brings a good turnout of local and sometimes snowbird runners just before the holidays.

Our annual election meeting is November 14. Notice of the meeting is posted on our web site. Come to the monthly board meetings, and get involved in your Club!

We wish all of our Club members a wonderful holiday season!
